

»Let's make music as friends!«

Leonard Bernstein

The international Schleswig-Holstein Festival Orchestra has enjoyed a superb reputation worldwide since its founding in 1987 by Leonard Bernstein. Every year young musicians from all over the world get the opportunity to study and perform great works with famous conductors. In addition, a team of principal players from top-rank orchestras and professors from European music academies leads chamber music and sectional rehearsals.

For the following projects we are looking for piano/celesta/synthesizer preferentially with orchestral experience.

18.7.2022 – 23.7.2022 Krzysztof Urbanski

Prokofiev: Skythian Suite
Adams: Mother of the Man

10.8.2022 – 13.8.2022 Ludwig Wicki

Williams: STAR WARS, The Empire strikes back, movie in concert

Additionally we offer the possibility to play chamber music with the other members of the Festival Orchestra between August 1st and August 7th.

Grant

After a successful audition, the musician will receive a grant to cover travel, bed and board and tuition expenses.

Audition date

May 22nd 2022, Frankfurt

Age limit

Musicians born after February 28, 1995

Registration fee

25 €

Audition repertoire

Mozart : Movement of a solo piece of your own choice

Strawinsky: L' Oiseau de feu suite pour orchestre (edition from 1919) from the beginning to bar 81

Williams: Star Wars, The empire strikes back from the beginning to bar 53 (piano and celesta)

We will send the sheet music of the excerpts after your registration.

Registration and further information:

festivalorchester@shmf.de

