* Stipendium Hungaricum scholarship applicants do not need to pay the 60 EUR application fee and do not need to submit this Application Form, unless they are also applying for self-financed studies. They only need to apply for the relevant study programme through the Stipendium Hungaricum application system and submit the necessary documents there.

Some scholarship applicants who pass the scholarship pre-evaluation process and the entrance examination but fail to receive the scholarship due to quota limits might be offered to start their studies as a self-financed student. If they accept this offer, they need to pay the 60 EUR application fee along with the first instalment of their tuition fee by 31 August.

We advise Stipendium Hungaricum scholarship applicants who have the necessary financial means to apply for self-financed studies as well, to ensure that they are considered for self-financed studies in case their scholarship application is rejected at any point of the evaluation process.
